

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. At Saint-Gobain we take privacy seriously and we are committed to protecting it.
- 1.2. In our commitment to protecting your privacy, we aim to always comply with the retained EU (European Union) law version of the General Data Protection Regulation (EU 2016/679) (“UK GDPR”), the General Data Protection Regulation (EU 2016/67) GDPR and all relevant and applicable data protection laws.
- 1.3. This privacy notice relates to the following (and referred to as “you,” “your”):
 - 1.3.1.our suppliers and service providers who are natural persons (such as self-employed persons)
 - 1.3.2.the representatives or contact persons of our suppliers and service providers who are legal entities; and
 - 1.3.3.any other visitors to our facilities acting on behalf of our suppliers and service providers.
- 1.4. This privacy notice provides information on how each of the Saint-Gobain companies in the UK and Ireland (each a “Company” and referred to as “we,” “us,” “our”) processes personal data about you. A list of each of the Saint-Gobain UK and Ireland companies is set out in Schedule 1 to this privacy notice.
- 1.5. For the purposes of data protection, the Company to whom you supply goods and services is the data controller of your personal data. As a “data controller,” the Company is responsible for deciding how it processes your personal data.
- 1.6. We may amend this privacy notice from time to time to reflect any changes in the way in which we process your personal data. Please check this page occasionally to ensure you are happy with any changes.
- 1.7. This privacy notice is effective from 16th March 2023.

2. THE INFORMATION WE HOLD ABOUT YOU

 - 3.2.4. where you have consented for us to do so, for example:
 - 3.2.4.1. special category data for us to meet your specific requirements.
- 3.3. We may process Special Category data when given by you for us to meet your specific requirements or when establishing, defending or exercising a legal claim in a court of law.

4. DATA SHARING

- 4.1. We will share your personal information with third parties where required by law, where it is necessary to administer the contractual relationship or where we have a legitimate interest in doing so.
- 4.2. Third parties may include other Saint-Gobain entities, service providers, fraud prevention agencies, regulatory bodies, payment processors, insurers, logistic providers, IT service providers, auditors, legal representatives and other professional advisors.

- 4.3. When we disclose your data to third parties, we only disclose the data necessary for them to provide their service and where we are sure they have adequate policies/procedures in relation to data protection. We have contracts in place with these third parties to ensure your data is secure and not used for purposes outside our specific instructions.
- 4.4. Wherever data is transferred or made available outside of the EEA, we undertake due diligence on the entity accessing or receiving your data to ensure they have put in place appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect and secure your data. We also put in place contractual safeguards in accordance with our obligations under the relevant data protection legislation (see 1.2). These contractual safeguards limit their ability to use your personal information solely to provide services to us and/or to you and not otherwise.

5. DATA SECURITY & RETENTION

- 5.1. We take appropriate technical and organisational security measures and have rules and procedures in place to guard against unauthorised access, improper use, alteration, disclosure, destruction and accidental loss of your personal data.
- 5.2. We limit access to your personal data to those who have a business need to know and they will only process your personal data on our instructions and subject to a duty of confidentiality.
- 5.3. We have put in place procedures to deal with any actual or suspected data security breach and will notify you and the Information Commissioner's Office for the UK, or the Data Protection Commission in the Republic of Ireland, where we are legally required to do so.
- 5.4. We keep your personal information for no longer than necessary for the purposes for which we collected your information. The length of time we retain personal information will depend on the purposes for which we collect and use it, or as required to comply with applicable laws, or to establish, exercise or defend our legal rights.

6. YOUR RIGHTS

You have certain rights in relation to your personal information. There is normally no charge for exercising these rights. If you would like further information in relation to these rights, or would like to exercise any of them, please contact us by email at dataprotection.SGUKI@saint-gobain.com at any time. In relation to certain rights, we may ask you for information to confirm your identity and, where applicable, to help us to search for your personal information. Except in rare cases, we will respond to you within one month from receiving your request.

Subject to any exceptions, your rights include:

6.1. Access your personal information

You have the right to ask for a copy of the information we hold about you by emailing us at the address at the end of this Privacy Statement. We may not provide you with a copy of your personal information if this concerns other individuals or we have another lawful reason to withhold such information.

6.2. Correct, modify and update your personal information

The accuracy of your information is important to us so please let us know of any changes to the information you have provided to us. In the first instance, please contact our Payment Centres who may require further information from you to process your request.

6.3. Erase your personal information or restrict its processing

In certain circumstances, you may ask us to remove your personal information from our systems. Unless there is a reason the law allows us to use your personal information for longer, we will make reasonable efforts to comply with your request.

You may also ask us to restrict processing your personal information where you believe it is unlawful for us to do so, you have objected to its use and our investigation is pending or you require us to keep it in connection with legal proceedings. In these situations, we may only process your personal information whilst its processing is restricted if we have your consent or are permitted legally to do so, for example for storage purposes, to protect the rights of another individual or company or in connection with legal proceedings.

6.4. Withdraw your consent

Where you have given your consent to our processing of your personal data you may at any time withdraw your consent. Unless we have another legal basis to process your personal data (such as compliance with a legal obligation) we will cease any processing of your personal data following receipt of your notice of withdrawal of consent.

6.5. Object to our use of your personal information

Where we rely on our legitimate business interests as the legal basis for processing your personal information for any purpose(s) set out above or at the time we collect your data, you may object to us using your personal information for these purposes. Except for the purposes for which we are sure we can continue to process your personal information we will temporarily stop processing your personal information in line with your objection until we have investigated the matter. If we agree to your objection in accordance with your rights under data protection laws, we will permanently stop using your data for those purposes. Otherwise, we will provide you with our justification as to why we need to continue using your data.

You may object to us using your personal information for direct marketing purposes and we will automatically comply with your request.

6.6. Lodge a Complaint with the competent supervisory authority and seeking a judicial remedy

If you are concerned how we have processed or collected your personal information you have the right to complain to the relevant supervisory authority.

7. CONTACT US

- 7.1. Please direct any queries about this Privacy Statement or about the way we process your personal information to dataprotection.SGUKI@saint-gobain.com.
